

BUILDING THE TEAM:

INTRODUCING OUR NEW ASSOCIATE MINISTERS

Over the last two years we have been exploring how we can build the team of ordained ministers to make sure we offer appropriate pastoral care and continue to develop our mission and ministry. We are therefore delighted to introduce you to our new part-time associate ministers, who will both be joining us in January. We will interview them both in future issues of Denham Parish News.

REV'D NNAMDI MADUKA

“Hello! I am Rev’d Nnamdi Maduka. I am originally from Nigeria (now a British citizen), married to Chinwendu and we are blessed with three lovely children.

I hold a Master of Business Administration from Cardiff Metropolitan University and work as a manager with Royal Mail. More recently I finished a BA in Theology, Ministry and Mission from Durham University.

Currently I am the Associate Priest/Curate at St. Joseph the Worker in Northolt and I look forward to joining you all at Denham Parish soon!”

REV'D IAN JENNINGS

Ian Jennings writes: "I was born near the Angel of the North but there was no Angel in those days!

I was married to Barbara for 45 years. Sadly she died in 2016. It has been a very tough journey about which I have written a little book called, 'By a Departing Light,' to be published shortly. It is about growing through grief and is a reminder that when Jesus said, 'I will never leave you,' He meant it.

I have two children - Paul is married to Katie and they have three boys - and Sarah, who is a mental health nurse. I am grateful to God for a wonderful family.

I have been working in Christian Ministry since I was 22 years old. This includes South Wales, North Wales and Birmingham but I have been in Sheffield since 1989 - the last 9 years of my ministry as Team Rector. Earlier I was a prison chaplain.

"When Jesus said, 'I will never leave you,' He meant it."

As a preacher I tell a lot of stories and they often begin, 'When I was a prison chaplain...'

I'm looking forward to working with Christoph and the team and getting to know the parish of Denham."
